

About Milano

Milan, the capital of Lombardy, has a population of 1.3 million people. The biggest industrial city of Italy with many different industrial sectors, it is a magnetic point for designers, artists, photographers and models. Milan has an ancient city centre with high and interesting buildings and palazzos, which is why so many people from all over the world want to see the city of glamour.

Milan has always been a rich and important city. It has always been a place full of various famous artists and offers a particular assortment of churches, buildings and monuments. Milan offers a big variety of buildings, monuments and museums. The most important church is the Cathedral which is the third largest church in the world.

Nightlife

By day, Milan is a sunny city full of people heading to work, drinking their cappuccinos, and touring the city's iconic landmarks, but by night, it transforms into a lively scene of conversation, appetizers, and dancing.

Popular destinations such as Brera, Navigli, Corso Como, and the Duomo area are home to Italy's trendiest clubs, restaurants, pubs, and dance clubs.

Visiting Milan

You can experience the city by yourself or you can take a tour, meet other people and get an overview of the points of interest in Milan. There are many different tours available, and you can easily find information about them all by stopping by the tourist office in Piazza Duomo or by visiting their website.

[\[http://www.cittametropolitana.mi.it/turismo\]](http://www.cittametropolitana.mi.it/turismo)

CPAAI
CPA ASSOCIATES INTERNATIONAL